

Contract for Deed Term Sheet

Proposed Contract for Deed Sale - 4121 Tensity Dr, Raleigh, NC 27604

Prepared: June 26, 2026 | Draft version: 26-06-26 V6

Purpose: This term sheet is a plain-English summary of the proposed deal for review and discussion. It is not the final contract and does not transfer title. The final Contract for Deed, any needed note, memorandum, trade-property addendum, title or ownership paperwork, buyer qualification review, and attorney review still control. If this summary conflicts with the final signed documents, the final signed documents control.

3. Proposed Purchase Structure

The proposed Contract for Deed separates the earnest money, cash due at closing, and credit for included trade properties so each part can be shown clearly in the final documents.

Item	Details
Proposed purchase price	$346,500.00
Earnest money at signing	$6,000.00
Cash due at closing	$183,900.00
Credit for included trade properties	$156,600.00
Total cash and credits	$346,500.00
How the purchase price is made up	$6,000.00 earnest money + $183,900.00 cash due at closing + $156,600.00 trade-property credit = $346,500.00 proposed purchase price

4. Trade Properties Included as Credit

The buyer is expected to transfer title, ownership rights, or other required ownership documents for the included trade properties below as part of the deal. The credit is not final until the required paperwork, approvals, possession items, and other closing conditions are completed and accepted.

Property	Type	Credit	What still has to happen
5009 Sunnyfield Dr	Single wide	$63,000.00	Required before final credit is counted
5021 Sunnyfield Dr	Double wide	$93,600.00	Required before final credit is counted
Total credit		$156,600.00	Subject to trade-property addendum

5. What Must Happen for the Trade Credit to Count

The trade credit is conditional. Before it counts as final, the buyer must deliver acceptable ownership documents, lien releases or payoff proof, possession/keys, tenant and rent information where applicable, and required third-party approvals.

The final trade-property addendum should spell out ownership transfer, possession, approvals, liens, tenant rents, verification, condition, and remedies.

If a required item is not delivered and accepted, the final documents should say whether the missing credit becomes additional cash due, a purchase-price adjustment, a closing-condition issue, or another agreed remedy. The proposed values are working numbers until accepted.

6. Documents Expected Later

Contract for Deed Agreement for 4121 Tensity Dr.

Memorandum of Contract for Deed for recording, if attorney-approved.

Trade-property addendum for included trade properties.

Buyer acknowledgment addendum and any required disclosures.
